“Mythri Alumni Interaction Cell”

Session on Passion –A Profession and Industry Expectation

Date:14-12-2024

The Post Graduation Department of Commerce and Management, SFGC, Yelahanka, through Mythri Alumni Interaction Cell had organized a session on passion –A profession and Industry Expectation by Ms. Poojamathi.K, (2021-2023) Tax Consultant Deloitte on 14th December 2024 at Conference hall. The main objective of these session is to Increased Engagement, Better Performance, Greater fulfillment Increased creativity and Inspiration among the students. The Alumni Started Interacted with the Insights on Passion-A profession and Industry Expectations with a higher level of Commitment and dedication required by an Industry to bridge the gap between Industry standards, Norms and practice to be accepted and followed. The key motto of these session is to “you know what you expect from your Employees, but do you know your Employees Expect from you”. The speaker rightly said the future of a person depends on his/her choice. A right choice means success in life, but a wrong one means failure and consequently. The session Enhanced on Be focused; Be determined; Be hopeful; Be Empowered. The overall session was very Interesting and well received by all our participants.
